

Continuing Education Series

Join us for our upcoming Optimum Life Continuing Education Series for healthcare professionals. This recorded webcast series features a different senior-related topic each month and provides 1.0 CE credit (one hour) per session for nurses, social workers, case managers and nursing home administrators. Participants can also have their questions answered by our content experts.

- January     Dementia: The Lived Experience
Juliet Holt Klinger, MA, Brookdale's Gerontologist; Michael Belleville, Dementia Advocate; Cheryl Belleville, Dementia Advocate and Care Partner
- February     Engagement: Combatting Isolation and Loneliness in Older Adults
Carol Cummings, RN, BSN, Sr. Director Optimum Life Engagement and Innovation; Charles Richardson, Sr. Director Resident Programs
- March     Polypharmacy: Solving the Mystery
Kim Elliott, MSN, RN, SVP Clinical Services; Todd King, Pharm D., CGP, Sr. Dir. Clinical Services - Omnicare
- April     Help Me Grieve: A Healthcare Professional's Overview to Evidence-Based Support for the Grieving
April Price, RN, CHPN, Regional Director of Clinical Specialty - Hospice
- May     The Diagnosis of Dementia: Implications for Care and Support
Daniel Kuhn, LCSW, Vice President of Education
- June     LGBT Older Adults: 2020 and Beyond
Tim R. Johnston, PhD, Sr. Director National Projects - SAGE
- July     Fighting Dementia with Food: MIND and Mediterranean Diets
Sara Fagan, RD, CSG, LDN, Director of Nutrition
- August     Low Vision: Impact to Day-to-Day Activities and Interventions
Maria Crescini, PT, Director of Program Development - Brookdale Health Services
- September     Suicide: Prevention Can Be Possible
Doris Fischer-Sanchez, DNP, APN-BC, CPHRM Clinical and Enterprise Risk Management Consultant
- October     Medical Ethics at the End of Life
Anna-Gene O'Neal, RN, MSN, MBA, Division President - Brookdale Health Services
- November     Alzheimer's Disease: Research Trends and Updates
Keith Fargo, PhD, Director of Scientific Program & Outreach, Alzheimer's Association
- December     Holistic Pain Management and the Role of Cannabis
David Gordon, MD, ABOIM, IFMCP, Integrative Medicine and Medical Cannabis Physician Owner, 4 Pillars Health & Wellness

► For more information go to Brookdale.com/referrals