

Continuing Education Series

Join us for our upcoming Optimum Life Continuing Education Series for healthcare professionals.

This recorded webcast series features a different senior-related topic each month and provides 1.0 CE credit (one hour) per session for nurses, social workers, case managers and nursing home administrators. Participants can also have their questions answered by our content experts.

January	Care Partnering Versus Caregiving Brian LeBlanc, International Alzheimer's Advocate; Maureen Rulison, President of Caregiver Support and Resources, LLC; Juliet Holt Klinger, MA, Sr. Director Dementia Care
February	COVID-19: Where We Have Been and Where We Are Going Kim Elliott, Senior Vice President of Clinical Services
March	Crisis and Chaos: A Framework to Recovery Jaclyn Pritchett, PHR, SHRM-CP, SVP of Field HR Operations and Talent Management
April	Substance Use Disorder and the Older Adult: A Hidden Reality Doris Fischer-Sanchez DNP, APN-BC, CPHRM, Clinical & Enterprise Risk Management Consultant
May	Introduction to Trauma-Informed Care for Healthcare Workers Leigh-Anne Royster, PhD; Jennifer Craft Morgan, PhD
June	Engaging LGBT-Identified Family Members, Caregivers and Community Partners Tim R. Johnston, PhD, Senior Director of National Projects for SAGE
July	Reducing Inflammation in the Body and the Role of Nutrition Sara Casey, RD, CSG, LDN, Director of Nutrition
August	Bringing Healthcare Home Katy Wiseman, PT, DPT, Senior Director, Strategic Initiatives
September	The Pursuit of Health Equity in Alzheimer's and Other Dementia Science Carl V. Hill, M.P.H., Vice President of Scientific Engagement, Alzheimer's Association
October	Palliative Care: Combating Stigma and Enhancing Care Cindy Douglas, Divisional Vice President, Brookdale Healthcare Services - Hospice
November	Dementia: A Woman's Concern Juliet Holt Klinger, MA, Sr. Director Dementia Care
December	Complementary and Integrative Healing Courtney Hamilton, MSN, RN; Carol Cummings, BSN, RN, Sr. Director, Optimum Life Engagement and Innovation

► For more information, go to brookdale.com/referrals

